

but the modern man has also much to learn and he does not seem to appreciate the fact. The more I see of business men and business methods the more I am filled with wonder, not that so few men become rich as I am that so many acquire a competency."

"Why don't you talk like this to Dick, Margaret. It would do him a lot of good."

"Is it possible that you have lived so long and been married so many years, Mr. Selwin, without knowing that a man might possibly talk business with any other woman but never with his wife?"

(To Be Continued Tomorrow.)

"WOMAN HAS BUT ONE LOVE," SAYS THIS JAPANESE OPERA SINGER

Mme. Mameki Miura, Japanese grand opera star, who will sing "Madame Butterfly" at Auditorium next week, says a woman can have but one real love in her life; that love is life.